Panhandle Republican Women's Meeting

Elections:

Elena Quinn nominated as President, seconded
Mary-Esther Wilson nominated as Secretary, seconded
Mary Kate Fioravanti nominated as Vice, seconded
Tiffany Nichols nominated as Treasurer, seconded

All offices voted in unanimously.

Elena and Tiffany will go set up a bank account for the group and will be set up as signers. Tiffany will now be in charge and given the dues up to this point.

Public Announcement:

Elena shared a public announcement to read at the Boundary, Bonner, and LD1 RCC meetings. It will also be turned into local papers. It is announcing who we are and when we will be holding our public meetings.

It was motioned and passed to add the recently elected officers to the announcement.

Mary Kate motioned to put her own message into the paper along with the public announcement. It was decided she would email out her message for approval of the group.

Group voted to remove the sentence “We plan to be available to volunteer for any Republican event as needed.”

Nominated and passed to move the discussion of “Logo and T-Shirts” to the last action item of the meeting.

Fair Booth:

Elena is picking up “GOP Swag” for the fair and making name tags for the officers.

Linda Fioravanti is getting a banner for the fair and future venue. She is also making ¼ sized slips to hand out at the fair booth about the caucus and inviting people to our next meeting on September 20th, the third Wednesday of every month.

Mary-Esther will coordinate a booth time sheet for the fair

Events:

We will not be having any special events till next year.

Types of events would be delegate debates and town hall meetings

Elena is asking Dorthy Moon if she would be available for our September meeting.

Website:

Mary Kate will come to the next meeting with comparisons of websites.

Elena will look at domains

Logo and T-shirts
