

Panhandle Republican Women's Monthly Meeting

September 20, 2023

Held at Covenant Church 56 Plato Drive Bonners Ferry, Idaho

The Agenda, Minutes and Treasurer's Report were accepted without any objections

We listened to Dorthy Moon, Chairwoman of the Idaho Republican Party, speak about the Idaho Republican Presidential Caucus and the Open Primaries Initiative.

Old Business:

We have submitted our application and money to the IFRW (Idaho Federation of Republican Women) and NFRW (National Federation of Republican Women). They are in the process of reviewing our application.

New Business:

It was suggested, and then accepted to set up a committee of members to hold a Sheriff's debate for our upcoming Sheriff's election. The committee would decide where and when the debate would be, the format of the debate, and the questions asked.

The Committee: Lynda Fioravanti
 Amy Roemelen
 Laura Richardson
 Danielle Ahrens
 Donna Thomas
 Elena Quinn

Joy Edwards was voted in to be our Historian

We then listened to Scott Herndon speak on the happenings of the Senate.
Also Ben Robertson on our County Commissioner's happenings
Both of these men are running again for their current seats at the next election.
