Invocation by Fay Almond

Pledge given by Elena Quinn

Collection gathered for venue

Agenda approved

October minutes – Mary-Esther noticed the guest speaker was not included in the minutes. The minutes were approved with that addition.

Treasurer's report – We have a PayPal account. Memberships are due

Officer Elections: The Nominating Committee gave their recommendation of:

President – Elena Quinn      Vice President – Lyndsey Bertoldo      Treasurer – Marji Hartman
Secretary – Ana Bertoldo

There were no other nominations from the floor. The recommendation passed with no objections.

Elected Officials & Candidates: Jim Woodward – Legislation starts January 12th and runs through April. Watch for a Town Hall the last Saturday of January, February, and March. Probably at the Visitor's Center. Elena would like to have a Legislative Candidate Forum mid April. It will be for all the candidates to answer questions gathered from the public.

Old Business: Fundraising Update – Super 1 didn't have any openings till after the New Year. Elena will get us a spot to have a bake sale. We were told we can have a bake sale at Covenant Church. The craft sales for the holidays were coming up quickly and they had expensive table fees. Lyndsey motioned and Fay seconded to have a Women in Red fundraising dinner around President's Day. Mary-Esther motioned and Liz seconded that a committee be put together to plan the dinner. Both motions passed. Lyndsey Bertoldo, Jane Sauter, and Mary-Esther Wilson volunteered to be on the committee.

Social Media Campaign – Elena has already updated our website. She is going to open up a page for us on other social media locations. Go check out our updated website.

New Business: Mary-Esther gave an update on November's School Board meeting. She invited people to find a meeting they can attend and bring an update to the group.

Fay Almond motioned we cancel our December meeting. It passed.

Announcements:
