Treasurers' report approved - current balance is $3,307.68.

Elected Officials:

Jane Sauter was presented with flowers to congratulate her win. She thanked everyone who voted and helped with her campaign.

Cornel Rasor won by 63%; Scott Herndon, 53.5%; and Jane Sauter, also 53.5%. "If you don't take an interest in gov., you can be sure the gov. will take an interest in you."

- Cornel. The gov. will still want your taxes, and still regulate your life.

Old Business:

Fair Booth Update: Elena purchased a red 8x8 pop-up with walls, and will put our logo on it.

New Business:

4th of July Parade: Instead of hay bales, we will be riding on benches; discussed ideas for handouts, like American flags, or red-white-and-blue necklaces.

Initiative Updates: The abortion and the medical marijuana initiatives may have gotten enough signatures to be on the nov ballot. If they are approved, we will have lots of work to do to defeat those. We should know by July 1st.

Announcements:

BCRCC Reorg meeting: May 29th at Mugsy's. The central committee will be voting on executive positions, and selecting delegates to attend the convention.

IDGOP Convention in Meridian: June 18th-20th, so PRW's June meeting will be canceled.

We have three new members! Welcome, Isaiah, Alexandria, & Iola Yandt!
